Missouri Valley Conference Weekly Awards

State Farm MVC Player of the Week Caiti Kopp, Illinois State

Caiti Kopp finished the Littlewood Classic 6-for-13 at the plate with three doubles, six runs scored and no strikeouts. The senior catcher recorded multiple hits in three of five games on the weekend, including a 2-for-4 performance against Iowa, where she doubled twice and drove in four runs. Kopp also coaxed three walks to give her a .563 on-base percentage for the weekend. From behind the plate, Kopp threw out a pair of would-be base stealers in six opportunities and has only allowed four stolen bases in seven chances on the season.

State Farm MVC Pitcher of the Week Natalie Rose, Missouri State

Rose was tremendous in her three outings this weekend, picking up a win and a save. For the weekend, Rose struck out 19 batters while not issuing a single base on balls in 15 innings of work. On Sunday, she took a perfect game into the sixth inning before surrendering three hits to the Jackrabbits in the final two innings. She struck out 11 SDSU batters en route to the complete game victory. On Friday, she picked up the save after firing three scoreless innings of relief and striking out three Sam Houston State batters. Despite a no-decision, Rose continued her domination of the Mean Green by shutting down the UNT offense over the final five innings. Including Friday's outing, she has tossed 15 innings against UNT allowing just one run while striking out 14 Mean Green hitters in her last three appearances at North Texas.
